

Remarks

Reconsideration is respectfully requested. Entry of the amendment is respectfully requested. No new matter has been added. Claims 7-8, 13, 24-27, 35-36, and 48-49 are pending. Six independent claims are pending, whereas seven independent claims were previously pending. Eleven total claims are pending, whereas forty-seven total claims were previously pending. Thus, no additional claim fee is deemed necessary.

Applicants respectfully submit that the amendment places this application in condition for allowance. The amendment was made in accordance with the rehearing decision dated February 15, 2008 from the BPAI. The rehearing decision ("decision") included the original decision dated September 21, 2007.

The decision deemed claims 1-6, 9-12, 14-18, 20-23, 28-34, 37-39, 41-47 to be rejectable. However, the decision deemed claims 7-8, 13, 19, 24-27, 35-36, and 40 to be allowable. The amendment places the subject matter deemed allowable into independent format.

As a result of the amendment, claims 7-8, 13, 24-27, 35-36, and 48-49 are pending and allowable. Claims 1-6, 9-12, 14-23, 28-34, and 37-47 have been canceled. Previous claims 19 and 40 have been rewritten as new claims 48 and 49, respectively. Claim 7 has been further amended to recite additional relationships regarding the door frame. Since all pending claims have been deemed allowable by the BPAI, this application is in condition for allowance.

Comments on the Substance of the Interview

An interview was conducted on October 10, 2007 between Examiner Tung Vo and a representative (Daniel Wasil, Reg. No. 45,303) of Applicants. Prior to the interview, Applicants' representative faxed an informal "Proposed amendment for purposes of an interview" on October 4, 2007 to the Examiner. The proposed amendment was submitted by Applicants for consideration by the Examiner to advance prosecution. The Examiner indicated that more time would be needed to consider the Proposed amendment. Thus, no agreement was reached.

Conclusion

Applicants respectfully submit that this application is in condition for allowance.

Respectfully submitted,
